

Hall of Shame

This is a running list that documents faceless writers patronising the "Conversations" (Comments) function of this blog by impersonating known writers.

As such, the Terms of Engagement in this blog require that the impersonators's log-in time-stamps, IP addresses and ISPs will be published.

It's left to the aggrieved parties to use the published information to contact the relevant ISPs and enforcement authorities to seek redress, if necessary.

The owner of this blog, while practising freedom of speech, shall fully indemnify himself from any comments that may be libelous, malicious, defamatory by nature, or content that may infringe whatsoever laws in Malaysia and universally throughout the world.
